CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

As we enter our 13th season we are all extremely pleased with the developments that have taken place in our code in the past few weeks.

We now have a new sponsor in the Victorian Health Promotion Foundation, covering the Socceroos, the N.S.L., and nearly all the States.

We welcome our new sponsor and stress the significance of associating our code with a Government Health Promotion agency.

The sponsorship as far as the League is concerned will ensure its financial stability and allow us to plan with confidence for the future.

We also record our thanks to WEST END who have agreed to work in conjunction with the Health Foundation and promote responsible drinking.

The other major development is the transition from S.B.S. to A.B.C. It is important to stress that we are all indebted to S.B.S. for its contribution to the development of the game but we also accept that the A.B.C. with its facilities and wider audience will open up new horizons for the code.

Once again we acknowledge our support of our other sponsors namely Ansett Mitre Travelodge ...

THAT WAS THE YEAR THAT WAS

By Gino De la Scerri

1988 started with two great events on the horizon. These were the Bicentenary Gold Cup and the Olympic Games in Seoul. It was hailed as a Big Year for Australian Soccer.

But first there was the match against former European Champions and Swedish Champions Gothenburg at Parramatta Stadium, with the new Socceroos going down narrowly 1-0.

JANUARY: The off-season Transfer market gathered momentum with the approaching kick-off at the end of the month.

Adelaide City: Led the way with the resigning of former player Steve Maxwell from Marconi Newcomers Brisbane Lions appeared confident with their current squad and made no big name signings to the N.S.L. Wollongong Wolves were taking no such chances with the backing of entrepreneur Harry Michaels then signed Danny Crainie from South Melbourne, former Socceroo David Ratcliffe from Olympic had Ray Vlietstra from Sydney Croatia.

Mike Petersen

Chris Kalantzis

The Sydney clubs were not idle either, A.P.I.A. Leichhardt grabbed Lawrie McKinna from the relegated Heidelberg and Kurt Reynolds from the Blacktown City. Italian rival Marconi snared Peter Katholos from them and Kiwi national striker Fred De Jong in anticipation of Frank Farina to Belgian Club Roda. St. George former South Korean International Kyeong-Sik Choi Sydney Croatia signed Socceroo Alan Hunter from Heidelberg and brought in Visa player Ivan Petkovic from Yugoslavia whilst across the city rivals Sydney Olympic commenced their rebuilding in earnest, starting with Kiwi Internationals Clint Gosling and Robert Ironside, Grant Lee from Blacktown City and Young Socceroos – John Koch and Jason Polak from A.I.S.

Melbourne Clubs were also active with Brunswick signing Socceroos – Mike Petersen, back from (AJAX, Amsterdam) and Gary McDowell from South Melbourne and Steve Marley from Heidelberg. Footscray brought in Visa player Milan Dimoski from Vardar Skopje to play under World Youth Championship winning coach Mirsad Fazlagic. Melbourne Croatia snapped up Socceroo keeper Jeff Oliver from Heidelberg and Paul Donnelly from Perth Azzurri.

Preston Makedonia was another club content with its current squad but Middle Parkers – South Melbourne embarked on a youth policy signing the exciting Paul Trimboli for a song from the unhappy Sunshine G.C. and Young Socceroos Paul Foster and David Healy from the A.I.S. Sunshine George Cross gained Les Carter from compatriots Green Gully.

The NSL kicked off with four wins, by Marconi, Footscray, Sydney Olympic and Wollongong, with Marconi having the lion's share, 6 nil against Sunshine.

FEBRUARY: Surprisingly perhaps, Marconi then went down 3-1 to unfancied Brisbane Lions in Round 2, reducing the number of joint leaders to three teams, none of which were on full points. Meanwhile, the Socceroos, with two goals from old war horse, John Kosmina, and another by Frank Farina, defeated crack European team, Dinamo Zagreb. In Round 3, only Wollongong, winners over Adelaide City, led the field on 5 points. The month closed with Australia's win against Chinese Taipei.

MARCH: With the approaching of the Bicentennial Gold Cup there was much talk of bringing expatriate players home, but eventually only Mitchell came to help with the Socceroos' not indifferent successes. Meanwhile, the NSL was in top gear with Wollongong, now joined by Sydney Croatia, as leaders on 8 points with 5 matches played. Odzakov, once described by soccer supremo, Rale Rasic as the 'most complete player in Australia', was transferred to Blacktown City from Sydney Croatia in a bid to help Blacktown make a return to the NSL. Australia won against both Chinese Taipei and New Zealand to go a step closer to qualifying for the Olympic Games. The actual qualification came with yet another win against Chinese Taipei in Auckland.

APRIL: Steve Kamasz retired as Executive Director of the NSL, leaving Peter Russell in full charge. Wollongong returned to sole leadership with Sydney Croatia, who however had two games in hand, dropping well back on just 8 points. Yzendoorn, who had retired from the game at the end of the previous season, made a welcome return to Brunswick Juventus who were languishing at the bottom of the table. Len McKendry, the Brunswick Juventus coach left the 'Zebras' among rumour of internal strife in the club. This was not surprising seeing that JUVENTUS had slumped so badly at this stage in the competition.

Steve Kamasz

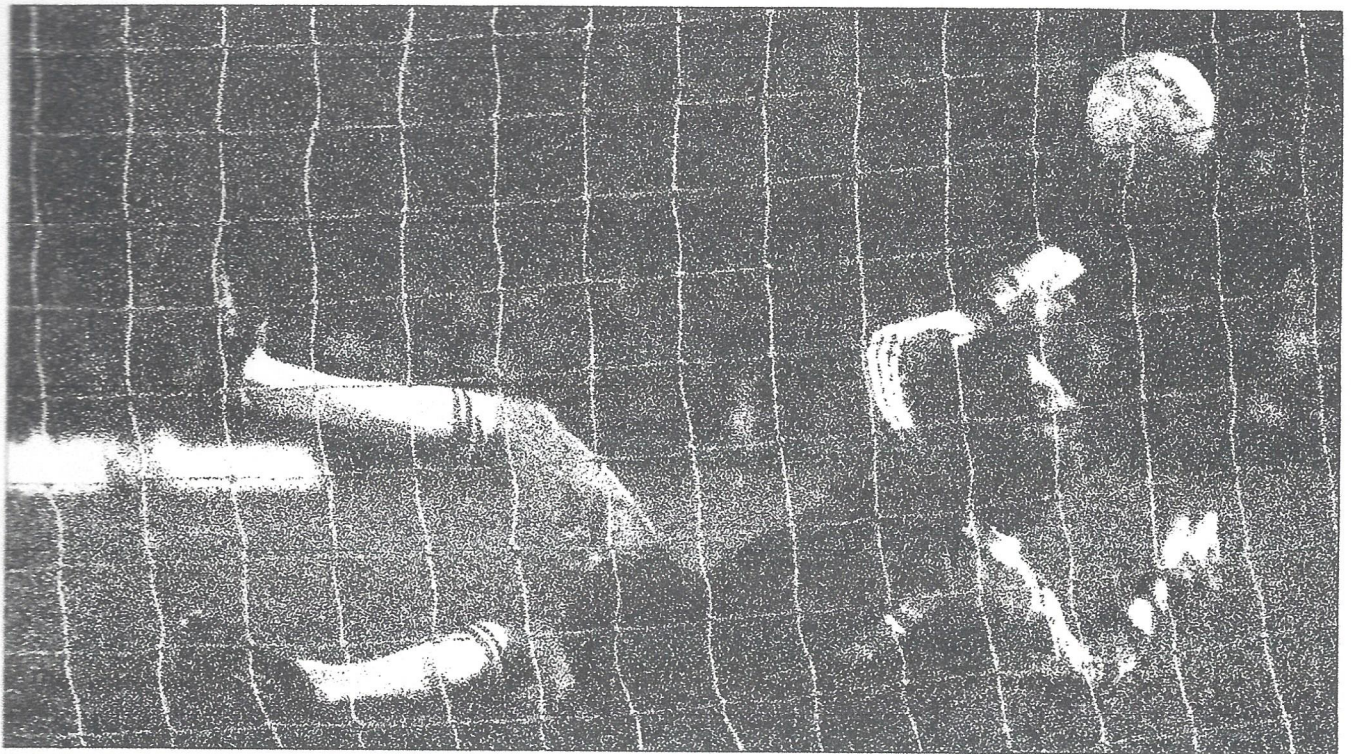

Craig Johnston

MAY: Francesco 'Ciccio' Graziani, Italy's former World Cup star, made two guest appearances for Leichhardt-APIA, but never really settled to the Australian 'fast-running' game. The Italian showed his great class, but still APIA lost to rivals, Marconi. With this win Marconi took the leadership in this round that marked the beginning of the second half of the competition. Craig Johnston, who was expected to turn out for Australia in the Bicentennial Gold Cup, was refused permission by his English club to travel. Manfred Schaeffer, who a few years before had great success with Sydney Olympic, returned to the game as coach of ailing Brunswick Juventus in a bid to save the team from relegation.

JUNE: After Graziani, another great in world soccer, Trevor Francis, came from the U.K. as guest player for Wollongong, where he joined fellow Britisher, Alan Brazil. Francis celebrated his first appearance for the 'Wolves' by scoring the winner against Melbourne Croatia in Melbourne. But in the following round the 'Wolves' failed badly when they were downed by Footscray in a match that left their coach, John Fleming, devastated and angry. During this month Australia was drawn in the Olympic Games Group D together with Brazil, Nigeria and Yugoslavia. Another expatriate, Chris Kalantzis, was denied permission to 'guest' for his old team, Sydney Olympic, by his Greek club. Evidently it is not very wise to pin one's hopes on expatriates.

Smoking

The penalty you don't need.

Every year, thousands of Australians die of diseases caused by smoking – more than six times the number who die in road accidents. This is what you could be doing to yourself by continuing to smoke:

Lung Cancer

Nine out of ten cases of lung cancer are smoking related. Lung cancer is rarely found in non-smokers.

Heart Disease

One quarter of all heart disease deaths are due to cigarettes. By smoking you increase your chance of heart attack by three times (three fold).

Emphysema

Nine out of ten smokers have the beginnings of emphysema. With this disease your lungs begin to rot, lung tissue hardens and the pressure of breathing blows holes in your lungs. Eventually you become a breathless invalid.

Chronic Bronchitis

As a smoker, you'll suffer more bronchitis than non-smokers. This means shortness of breath, smoker's cough and the risk of pneumonia.

Reduced Fitness

Smoking replaces oxygen in your blood stream with poisonous carbon monoxide. You then have to put more effort into everything because your body is starved of oxygen.

JULY: This was the month of the Bicentennial Gold Cup, graced by the presence of the Great Pele'. The NSL invited its affiliated clubs to a meeting with the view to the restructuring of semi-professional football in NSW. With four rounds still to be played Sydney Croatia were leading by 1 point from Marconi and South Melbourne, with the early pacesetters, Wollongong in 4th place, but with one game in hand. The highlight in July was Australia's 4-1 win against World Champions, Argentina, after losing 1-0 to Brazil, when John Kosmina played his 100th match in Green and Gold. Before the month came to an end, there was the resumption of the NSL that saw Wollongong regaining the lead in the competition.

AUGUST: Ian Brusasco became the new ASF Chairman, taking over from long serving President, Sir Arthur George. The leadership in the competition see-sawed with every round, and with just one round left, it was now South Melbourne that was leading by 1 point from Wollongong and Sydney Croatia. At the other end of the ladder, once-great Brunswick Juventus and Brisbane Lions were doomed irrevocably. Juventus, however, had one last chance for glory as they were finalists in the 'Cup'. But in the final played at the Marconi Stadium, was won 5-3 on penalties by APIA after a nil-all draw at the end of extra time. The NSL competition was finally won by Wollongong, who took the Minor Premiership from the other contenders. 'Old timer' 'Bugsy' Nyskohus was given a warm send-off after playing his last NSL match for Adelaide City, his 294th. Wollongong were unlucky to bow out of the Championship play-off when they lost to Sydney Croatia in the Major Semi-Final on penalties.

Charlie Yankos

SEPTEMBER: The Grand Final was then won by Marconi, who won also on penalties in a memorable match at Parramatta Stadium before a crowd of over 17,000. Alan Vessey became the General Secretary of the ASF, Blacktown City and Heidelberg were promoted to the NSL for the next season. Socceroo, Oscar Crino, became part owner of Footscray. Australia started very well in the Seoul Olympics, beating one of the favourites, Yugoslavia 1-0, when Alan Davidson took the ball up 40 metres and then pin-pointed a pass to Frank Farina, who beat the Yugoslavia goalie. After that, the greatest win ever, Australia won by the same score against Nigeria, and so reached the final eight in the world's second soccer tournament. The Australian's were only eliminated by the USSR who then went on to win the Gold Medal in the final with Brazil.

OCTOBER: Eddie Thomson, Arok's running mate, relinquished his position as assistant coach of the National team. John Fleming, who took Wollongong to win the Minor Premiership, was 'unofficially' voted by his fellow coaches as Coach of the Year. Talks were rife of amalgamation between Sunshine and Green Gully Ajax, and between relegated Brunswick Juventus and Victorian State League club, Fawkner for 1989. Australia had its first win against New Zealand since 1976, when they downed the All White 2-1 in Dunedin, then clinched the double by beating the Kiwi in ... Bendigo (Victoria) 2-0 to take the Trans-Tasman Cup. Heidelberg won their play-off against Brisbane City to win final promotion to NSL status. Farina and Bozinowski were the latest expatriates to Europe soon to be followed by Socceroo skipper, Charlie Yankos.

'HAPPY ANNIVERSARY MARCONI'

By Ray Gatt of The Australian

What a day for Australian soccer. On a balmy Sunday afternoon in September last year more than 17,000 fans packed into Parramatta Stadium to watch the culmination of the best six months in National Soccer League history.

National League officials could not have scripted a better finish to the Marconi-Sydney Croatia West End National Soccer League Grand Final if they had employed Steven Spielberg.

After 90 minutes of normal time the score was locked at 1-1, after 30 minutes of extra time they still could not be separated at 2-2. Now for sudden death. Emotions on both sides of the fence ran the full gamut during the nerve-wracking penalty shoot out. Ecstasy one moment as the ball crashed into the net, total despair the next as it hit a post or went wide.

By the time the Marconi warhorse Tony Henderson walked to the penalty spot to face Sydney Croatia goalkeeper Tony Franken, not a single soul had ventured out of the ground. Day was rapidly turning to night. If Hendo, veteran of 296 NSL matches, put the ball into the net, Marconi would win the title. Eight months of hard work, sweat and blood rested on just one kick ... one simple, lousy kick.

Would this be a fairytale finish to the brilliant NSL career of the former Socceroo skipper or would he go out a broken man, with a broken memory? A thousand thoughts must have raced through his mind as he sauntered up to place the ball on the white spot. Some of his teammates turned their backs and looked the other way. They could not stand the strain. How they were glad they were not in their skipper's shoes.

Some of the Croatian players didn't know what to do, either. One kept peering over his shoulder while he faced the opposite direction. Others gave the man who stood between them and a championship the stare. The rest looked skywards as if willing some divine intervention.

They looked in vain.

The old pro that he is, Henderson placed the ball, turned, took five or six paces, then blasted the ball right where Franken had stood a second earlier. As a dejected Franken lay on the ground, a huge roar went up and it wasn't long before Henderson disappeared under a mass of team-mates.

Lowe, Gomez and Gray, tired, but happy after the thrilling final.

Gray, Farina, Bertie Mariani, Henderson and Katholos after the victorious match.

The 1988 season was over. Forza Marconi! Forza Marconi!

But, what a crying shame there had to be a loser, Sydney Croatia were regarded as the aristocrats of Sydney soccer. Yet, for all their efforts they had nothing to show, except that they were part of one of the best club matches seen in Australia in decades. A part of one of the finest days in the local game's history.

Right from the moment referee Chris Bambridge blew the start of the match, both sides went into overdrive. How they managed to produce the sort of soccer they did on a pitch which resembled Bondi Beach more than it did a football stadium will never cease to amaze.

Yet, there was enough end-to-end action to keep everyone on the edge of their seats. But it took until five minutes before the break for the 0-0 deadlock to be broken.

Frank Farina made one of those typical runs, squared the ball into the six yard box where the classy David Lowe backheeled for Steve Calderan to push the ball past Franken. The lead lasted just 10 minutes into the second half when big Alan Hunter resurrected Croatia's hopes with a smashing volley that gave Marconi 'keeper Bob Catlin no hope.

Some 10 minutes later Croatia's Ivan Petkovic was marched after a tackle on Gerry Gomez, who several minutes later also found himself making the long, lonely walk back to the dressing rooms after an incident with Robbie Slater.

The match became an epic. Chances went begging at both ends before extra time was called. Then little Manis Lamond worked his way into the penalty box and was there to nod home a pin-point cross to give Croatia the lead for the first time. With the time running out, Farina produced a last despairing chase. As he tried to latch on to a magnificent through ball, Croatia captain Vedran Rozic brought him down. Penalty!

Showing he had ice water running through his veins, Zlatko Natsevski calmly converted and it wasn't long before they were into the cruelty of the penalty shoot out. The rest is history. Marconi and Tony Henderson history. It was a happy 30th anniversary for Marconi.

Long shall the memory of this match live.

1988, A BICENTENNIAL YEAR OF FAIRYTALES

By John Taylor

How often have we heard cries that the National Soccer League is on its last legs? The league completed its 12th year of operation last year and the competition produced one of the most fascinating finishes in the history of the code.

In many respects the 1988 season was a Bicentennial year of fairytales.

Nobody in their wildest dreams expected Wollongong City, in its promotion year, to be first past the post. The N.S.W. south coast provincial club won the minor premiership in the very last round. It was real Agatha Christie stuff. South Melbourne was favoured to win the minor title going into the last round. But Souths went down 1-0 to Adelaide City. The Wolves drew 1-1 with Sydney Croatia which meant all three teams finished level on 34 points. Wollongong had the superior goal difference.

The NSL's new policy was that the grand final winner would become the true champion. Marconi, the team widely tipped by the experts to win the minor title, finished fourth in the competition, but the Fairfielders defied the odds in the play-offs to go through four knockout games and be crowned the kings.

Marconi's first scalp was Sydney Olympic, then followed South Melbourne and Wollongong's dreams of a double were shattered by Berti Mariani's boys. All that stood in their path now was Sydney Croatia. And what a magnificent grand final it was when more than 17,000 fans turned up at Parramatta Stadium.

September 4 was certainly a day to remember for Marconi coach Berti Mariani and captain Tony Henderson. As the youngest coach in the NSL, it was fitting Mariani should guide his team to a championship in his first year as a coach. Henderson could not have wished to wind up his NSL career on a more memorable note. He took the last penalty kick in the penalty shoot-out to wrap up Marconi's championship after the teams were locked at 2-2 following 120 minutes of spine tingling action.

Tony Henderson

So the NSL has bid farewell to a great ambassador and competitor. But undoubtedly Marconi's biggest loss will be Socceroo striker Frank Farina, who is now making his fortune in the Belgium league. Not only was Farina the National League's top marksman again but he was voted the Player's Player once more by his peers.

And, on the subject of awards, South Melbourne scooped the pool at the combined Rothmans Medal and NSL function. Socceroo midfielder Paul Wade carried off the prestigious Rothmans Medal, team-mate Paul Trimboli was named Under 21 Player of the Year, while Brian Garvey was Coach of the Year.

There's always highs and lows in any sport. After experiencing championship success the previous year, Apia Leichhardt was one of the big disappointments last season and at one stage found itself caught up in the relegation battle. The club survived and had some consolation by winning the Beach Fashions Cup Final against Brunswick Juventus. It was a lacklustre final which produced no goals in 120 minutes. It went to a penalty shoot-out with Apia winning 5-3.

At that stage of the season Brunswick, along with Brisbane Lions, had already been relegated from the West End NSL. Manfred Schaefer, who replaced Len McKendry just past the halfway mark of the competition, almost became a Messiah. Brunswick will have to do what Heidelberg did and win back promotion.

The merits of the guest player system was put to the test again last year. Harry Michaels, one time executive director and financial backer of Wollongong City, led the way with the guest players. He brought out Alan Brazil, Paul Mariner and Trevor Francis. However, the former Scottish and English internationals failed to win over the south coast fans. But there's no doubt that the presence of the trio rubbed off on the local players. Not even former Italian World Cup star Francesco Graziani had the turnstiles clicking at Lambert Park when he appeared for Apia against Marconi.

Clubs have to carefully select guest players. When Kevin Keegan played for Blacktown City in 1985 he was a smash hit on and off the field. But Keegan was an exceptional character.

One of the most pleasing aspects of last year was the crackdown by referees against crude tackling. The clean up campaign allowed for more entertaining soccer.

There should be a further improvement this year with the National League planning to introduce a Fair Play Cup which will be awarded to the club that grosses the least number of penalty points throughout the season.

1989 CRYSTAL BALL

By Mike Cockerill, Sydney Morning Herald

Although Eddie Thomson is reluctant to dwell on the subject, there is little doubt that long suffering Sydney Olympic are closer to the top of the National Championship than they have ever been.

Unnoticed in the off season dominated by massive player transfers at Preston Makedonia, Blacktown City, Apia Leichhardt and Melbourne City J.U.S.T., Thomson has assembled an exciting squad which boasts the sort of depth so necessary to win championships. Only three new players have arrived at the Sydney Football Stadium, but they add a new dimension to the team which scraped into the final last year only to become victims of their own inexperience.

Sydney Olympic showed glimpses of their pedigree last season, but never on a consistent basis. With the benefit of that experience behind them, and with the arrival of attacking midfielder Mike McGarry, utility

Alistair Edwards and defender Andrew Bernal from overseas clubs, the team has all the hallmarks of becoming one of the pacesetters this season. Only the club's fickle supporters can sabotage those hopes, but if new club President George Paschalis can harness this natural enthusiasm with some patience then the club may at last secure the championship they have long deserved.

Certainly the off season for Sydney Olympic was memorable for one unusual factor — stability. The playing squad (with the exception of strikers Terry Patalis and John Kosmina) has remained similar, whilst Thomson and his assistant Mick Hickman offer perhaps the best coaching combination in the National League, and while Thomson is keen to play down talk of a championship, there is little doubt Sydney Olympic have rarely had a better preparation for a new season.

For all that, however, there are no shortage of challengers for the title, with reigning champions Marconi at the head of the queue. Coach Bertie Mariani has been successful in his aim to re-sign his large squad and has also brought former Sydney City and Apia utility Jean Paul De Marigny to Bossley Park.

Only striker Frank Farina has left the 'Champions', but then his much publicized transfer to a European club had long been expected and although the loss of Farina, who was the top scorer in the NSL for the past two seasons, will be keenly felt, wily veteran Zlatko Nastevski is a player capable of plugging the hole.

Last season's Grand Finalists Sydney Croatia are also well poised to go one better, especially as dynamic winger Robbie Slater has opted to pull out of a planned transfer to Yugoslav club Hadjuk Split. Sydney Croatia will also be strengthened by the return of scheming midfielder Ante Rumora after a one season absence. If there was a weakness in the team last season it was in the middle of the park, and Rumora will obviously strengthen this key area.

John Fleming, coach of Wollongong City.

However, the team most observers expect to show the biggest improvement this season is South Melbourne Hellas, an exciting young team blessed with most of the exciting young talent in the country. Striker Paul Trimboli has already made his mark, gaining his first soccerroo cap in the World Cup match against the Fijians in Newcastle, but in midfielder Steve Tassios, defenders Paul Fernandes and Angie Postecoglou and striker Danny Wright, South Melbourne have a group of players well equipped to step up into the international scene.

By contrast Wollongong City have no players with soccerroo experience, although striker Randell Easthorpe has recently been added to the national training squad. What the Wolves lack in star quality they make up for in spirit and determination. Those who underestimated their fighting qualities paid dearly last year and there is every reason to believe Wollongong City will again be competitive this season. The Wolves however have suffered a body blow with the loss of sweeper David Ratcliffe, a player whom coach John Fleming was desperate to retain. Whether they can sufficiently re-organise their defence in his absence will determine whether they can again challenge for a place in the final five.

Andrew Zinni, transferred from B.Juventus to Preston.

If the Wolves have been hamstrung in strengthening their squad by their restricted budget, no such limitations existed for Preston Makedonia as they went through a complete overhaul during the off-season. Shocked by their close call with relegation last season, Preston placed the majority of their first team on the transfer list and then went out and bought some of the best attacking talent in the country, Warren Spink, John Markovski, Andrew Zinni, Robert Markovac, and Robert Runje will all wear the red and black this season and there will be a great deal of pressure on coach Andon Donceski to produce results from this spending spree.

Melbourne City J.U.S.T. in their first full season under private ownership will also be under pressure to perform after luring a host of well regarded players to the revamped Schintler Reserve. The loss of midfielders Ernie Tapai and Vlade Bozinovski and striker Warren Spink will rob the team of some of their creative talent, but their replacements include striker Joe Palatsides, a player whose direct style may yield a bagful of goals.

On their ground at Somers Street, Sunshine Melbourne Croatia are making great strides towards narrowing the gap between themselves and their Sydney counterparts. On the field they may also provide a credible challenge with national youth team sweeper Steve Horvat, regarded as the outstanding young defender in the country. Horvat has had his debut season in the National League interrupted by a broken toe, but when he recover full fitness he is expected to prove an outstanding replacement for former Soccerroo defender Robbie Dunn.

Across the border in South Australia Adelaide City should again prove themselves one of the most stylish teams in the country. A club renowned for operating on a sensible budget, Adelaide City once again barely created a ripple on the transfer market, preferring to concentrate on retaining their developing squad and looking for the occasional budget buy. They had hoped to break their trend by signing Andrew Zinni from relegated Brunswick Juventus, but when that bid failed they opted for little known Lenny Vial and Dane Sharpe. However the club still has a core of talented players from their 1986 championship-winning side who possess a wealth of National League experience and cannot be discounted as a final five contender.

However there are a number of clubs many believe can be discounted as potential finalists, among them newly promoted Heidelberg United and Blacktown City, unfashionable Sunshine George Cross and 1983 champions St George. Heidelberg United hardly seem to have strengthened the team which last season won the Victorian State League, while the Demons have made the courageous decision to concentrate on youth, a policy which may not yield results this season, but which is destined to bring success in the long term.

Sunshine George Cross however have lost their two young stars John Markovski and Robert Markovac and do not have the resources to find suitable replacements. St George are in a similar predicament, although coach Frank Arok has in the past worked miracles on a shoestring budget and he may again prove the critics wrong.

Finally there are the biggest unpredictables of the season 1987, champions Apia Leichhardt, who have weathered a tumultuous off-season by bringing a host of new players to Lambert Park. New coach Mike Urukalo will find his first NSL job a tough one, but he has the experience of players like John Kosmina, Steve O'Connor and Craig Mason to help him through the tough times. It is difficult to predict whether Apia will be fighting relegation or threatening for the championship and the key remains how quickly they can mould so many new players into a competitive team.

ADELAIDE CITY READY FOR NATIONAL CHALLENGE

By Alan Crisp (Adelaide Advertiser)

Adelaide City will rely on at least one class import, its established stars and the pick of its brightest young talent to win its second West End NSL title in four years.

Coach Zoran Matic got his initial break of the new season when he received word that Red Star Belgrade midfielder Milan Ivanovich had been cleared to join City. Matic heralded that news as the ripening of the first fruit of his pre-Christmas player-hunting visit to Europe. Ivanovich was Matic's first signing target when he was in Yugoslavia and he initially turned down the invitation to come to Australia. But the 27-year-old first division regular had a change of heart and will be fielded by City as either a sweeper or stopper.

Cole Kovacevich of Spartek was another Yugoslav sought by Matic but promises by his club to release him once it was clear of relegation were not kept. However, Matic has not given up hope that Kovacevich will eventually become an Adelaide City player.

At Press time Matic received word from West Germany that another overseas recruiting target, Thomas Gommanginger, was close to gaining release from first division club Mannheim. A midfielder or defender Gommanginger, 22, has top credentials having played for Stuttgart before signing for Mannheim.

Before Matic ventured overseas, City had its best interstate recruiting success since the national series began when it lured Lenny Vial, Dane Shape and David Clarkson from their respective domains in Sydney, Newcastle and Brisbane. After a harrowing waiting period, striker Sharp joined City via Austrian second division club SV Horn.

Charlie Villani (Adelaide City)

A phase of the match Adelaide City v B. Juventus.

Vial, also a striker, came from New South Wales State League hotshots Melita Eagles, but like Sharp, he had a sluttering start at his new club. Curly-haired Vial suffered a knee injury at training before Christmas and was forced to miss the start of the West End NSL season and the Ampol Cup kick-off.

Clarkson enjoyed a happier beginning a City, despite an 11th hour clearance from Brisbane Lions and was able to make his debut in City's first round Ampol Cup win over Adelaide Croatia. The return of goalkeeper David Mower from the UK provided a genuine bonus for City's but the big man also was unlucky when he suffered injuries which sidelined him for the summer season start.

City's ill fortune continued when Paul Shillabeer, Adrian Santrac and Charley Villani received pre-season setbacks. Defender Shillabeer contracted glandular fever, midfield playmaker Santrac had to miss out the start while recovering from a cartilage operation and midfielder Villani had his preparation slowed by an ankle injury.

Those problems, allied to the late arrival of import Ivanovich, forced City to field a makeshift round one line-up against the Blacktown Demons at the Gabbie Stadium. Also unable to figure in the big kick-off were two of City's most outstanding youngsters, Carlo Talladira and Tony Vidmar, younger brother of City's established midfielder Aurelio Vidmar. Talladira and Tony Vidmar were in Northern Ireland playing for the Australian High Schools' team when City began its NSL campaign. But coach Matic is aware of their unbridled potential and has the talented pair pencilled in for future honours.

With captain Buggy Nyskohus retired from NSL play, City will field a new look defence this season. Nyskohus' colleagues will have to prove that there is life without their former captain courageous and there are enough of the 1986 championship winning team left to carry on the tradition. What problem was not immediate because Matic called Nyskohus out of retirement to help in its hour of need. Nyskohus was on the bench against St George in round two and was in the starting line-up when City was away to Sydney Croatia in round three.

Sergio, Melta, Steve Maxwell, Joe Mullen, Alex Tobin, Neville Flinders, Villani and Aurelio Vidmar were part of City's championship combination in 1986. They are tried and true performers, as are Shillabeer and Santrac, the reluctant absentees at the beginning of the season.

City's sluggish start, a 2-1 loss to Blacktown Demons, provided nothing new. Subsequent losses to the Saints and Sydney Croatia meant a horror kick-off to the season. But it was worse in 1988 when City had only one point from its first six league games. This season City has lost the first three battles but it has not lost the war. If talent and class counts, City will be in contention at the business end of this season.

Alex Tobin, one of the Socceroos, signed by Adelaide City.

QUARRYING

CONCRETE PLACING

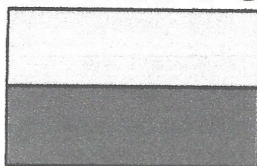

MIX IT WITH THE BEST.

Boral Resources is a major force in the Australian construction industry.

In quarrying, Boral Resources is represented by Boral, BMG and Quarry Industries.

Boral Resources is one of the largest suppliers of premixed concrete, marketed under the Boral Concrete and BMG Concrete names.

BORAL RESOURCES

Greystanes Road, South Wentworthville
New South Wales 2145

When it comes to concrete placing, another Boral Resources company, De Martin and Gasparini, is a leading name.

Boral Resources is also a major bulk materials transporter with over 250 vehicles in the Aztec Transport fleet.

When you work with Boral Resources you know you're mixing it with the best.

BERTOLLI

The name Bertolli has always been synonymous with premium quality pure olive oil, not only in Italy but throughout the world. In Australia, the name Bertolli means so much more - bringing to you an extensive range of premium quality, 100% natural food products and ingredients.

Bertolli 100% pure cold pressed olive oils are available in three distinctive varieties: Extra Light, Classico and for the real connoisseur, Extra Virgin. Bertolli quality and cholesterol free.

Also, there is the famous Bertolli 'Provvista Sugo' sauce, which provides the major ingredients for any tomato based recipe you may wish to serve.

And now Bertolli brings to you its new 'Pasta Italiana'. Made from 100% Durum wheat pasta that stays firmer in shape and requires less cooking time than semolina based pasta. Try it for yourself. With nine varieties to choose from you'll want to serve Bertolli products to your family, your friends and your team.

Bertolli of Australia - Proud sponsors of A.P.I.A. Soccer Club.

Heart Health ...

Your winning goal

The National Heart Foundation has six good ways to keep you fit and heart healthy this soccer season (and beyond)... By following a few simple guidelines you can lower your chance of having a heart attack, or other related blood vessel disease, without drastically changing your lifestyle.

The good news about heart disease is that by making a few simple changes now you can lower your chances of running into trouble later on. Try these. ...

✓ Have your cholesterol level checked, preferably by your doctor, and lower it, if necessary, by modifying your diet (mainly by lowering fat). The Heart Foundation has good recipe books available through all its State offices for about the same cost as a ticket to the footie. Give us a ring.

✓ Have your blood pressure checked regularly.

✓ Eat foods that are low in fat (fat causes a rise in cholesterol), low in salt and high in fibre. Include lots of fresh fruit and vegetables.

✓ Make sure you keep your weight under control.

✓ Exercise regularly. How long is it since you've kicked a soccer ball around with the kids on weekends? But any regular exercise you enjoy will fill the bill.

✓ Take the salt shaker off the table and don't add salt to cooking. Look for food labels that tell you you're buying low-salt, low-fat products.

The National Heart Foundation, set up nearly 30 years ago, is a non-government, voluntary organisation committed to lowering the numbers of premature deaths in Australia from heart disease and other blood vessel disease.

Although there have been dramatic drops in deaths from heart disease, it is still Australia's No.1 killer.

Good eating and health habits start early, so make the first step now.

Team up with your kids, too. Heart disease is a part of your health you can do something about.
